

Westminster's newest major:
LEADERSHIP

PREPARE TO LEAD AND SERVE IN A DIVERSE GLOBAL COMMUNITY
UNLEASH YOUR PURPOSE AS AN AUTHENTIC LEADER THROUGH POWERFUL EXPERIENCES AND STUDY

- Theoretical and practical components uniquely prepare you with challenging coursework, theory exploration, and real-life application.
- Learn how to lead oneself in order to lead others.
- A focus on diversity — diversity of thought, race, gender, generation, and more — will help you recognize the opportunities and challenges of leading a diverse workforce.
- Cultivate critical thinking skills — essential to making effective and ethically sound decisions — through experiential study such as simulations, conferences, and field trips; the study of great leaders in history and more.
- Part of the Price Leadership Program.

“Never must we lose our faith and our courage, never must we fail in exertion and resolve.”

— Sir Winston Churchill,
27 April 1951

STUDY ABROAD IN OXFORD, ENGLAND

Learning outside the Westminster classroom enhances your on-campus academic experience — Leadership majors have the opportunity to study abroad in Oxford, England, expanding their leadership knowledge and global perspective.

CAREER PREPARATION

- This major prepares you to work in a variety of fields and educates you to analyze data, solve problems, think critically, and communicate effectively.
- An ideal dual major, this leadership major complements other academic programs to give you a competitive advantage in your career.

Core Courses

Leadership Theory and Practice
Fundamentals of Management
Leading Oneself to Personal Wellness
Leadership Communication
Diversity and Ethics in Leadership
Leading Teams & Group Dynamics
And more.

WESTMINSTER
COLLEGE

CONTACT INFORMATION

Dr. Roslyn Grant

Roslyn.Grant@westminster-mo.edu
573-592-5208